

Bachelor of Science

Criminal Justice - Law Enforcement

The law enforcement program includes study in loss control, police operations and criminalistics. Students selecting the law enforcement option may also be eligible for police certification under the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES) at LSSU's main campus during their final semester. At the completion of their bachelor degree requirements, the students will have the option of attending the Skills Competition Program for seven weeks. This program is the final segment of the police academy operated by Lake Superior State University.

Program Highlights

- Courses offered evenings and distance formats
- Courses offered on a part-time basis
- Flexible schedules designed for busy adults

School of Criminal Justice

Students are required to apply to the School of Criminal Justice and must be admitted before taking LSSU 300/400 level business courses. See Regional Center Director for more requirements.

"Choosing LSSU's Escanaba Regional Center is definitely a sound investment. I was able to earn my degree without having to travel or move away from home. All of the necessary resources were readily available to me. I was very glad to have chosen LSSU. They offer quality education right in our own backyard."

- Nicole Crawford
Escanaba Regional Center graduate
